TWO MUSIC GROUPS GIVE CONCERTS THIS WEEK

Woodwind Ensemble, Pro-Arte String Quartet Present Recitals

A full concert of the Woodwind ensemble and the last of a series of recitals by the Pro-Arte String Quartet will comprise this week's program of the Music department.

Thomas E. Eagan, of the music faculty, will conduct the Woodwind ensemble in tomorrow night's concert, to begin at 8:15 in the Little Theater. Mrs. Lydia Boothby, new faculty member, will be featured as harpist.

Soloist will be Corinne Gorham, bassoon player, who will play Mozart's "Concerto No. 1 for Bassoon" and Melvin Buffo, who was featured in last week's concert of the symphonic band and who will perform the "Concerto No. 8 for Piano" by Handel.

Other selections in the first division of the program include Dutilleul's "Suite for Woodwinds" and "Paintings From An Artist's Sketchbook" by Gates. The second section lists the following numbers: Bach's "Largo", "Gavotte" by Gluck-Brahms, and "Two French Songs" by Grandyany.

The third and last group consists of the Mozart bassoon concerto, and "Two American Sketches" by Blattner. Tonight the Pro-Arte group will play for its last recital here this season a group of works from the Romantic period in music. Members of the Music department faculty will honor members of the Pro-Arte quartet and Mrs. Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge, patron of chamber music who is helping finance this series, at a dinner before the concert.

The quartet will play the Quartet in D Minor ("Death and the Maiden") of Franz Schubert; Johannes Brahms' Quartet in A Minor; and Claude Debussy's Quartet in G Minor.

Admission for the Pro-Arte recital is 75 cents, and there is no charge for the Woodwind concert.

PRE-LEGAL CLUB VISITS S.C.U. LAW SCHOOL TONIGHT

The Pre-Legal club will hold a dinner meeting at Lucca's in Santa Clara tonight at 6:30 before they visit the Law School at University of Santa Clara announced Owen M. Broyles, Pre-legal club adviser.

Club members will be shown the new law building of the University by Dean Owens and will also hear a talk by him on legal education.

Anyone who is interested in law or professional training is welcome to attend the meeting. Reservations for the dinner should be made with Broyles, or with Carl Noddin.

YWCA Holds Election In Quad Tomorrow

Election of vice-president and secretary of the YWCA for the 1941-42 season will be held tomorrow from 9 until 5 o'clock in the quad, it was announced yesterday.

Candidates for the office are Mary Sanchez, and Frances Strom. Voting for the position of secretary are Jean Douglass, and Jean Russell.

Emi Kimura was recently elected president of the organization at a supper meeting. Bernice Peterson was elected treasurer on a white ballot and Helen Dunlop was elected as national representative.

SNEAK WEEK

Seniors Register Today 8-4

Seniors will get another opportunity to register for participation in Sneak Week activities, announced Walt Mazzone, chairman.

Sign-ups are being taken from 8 to 4 in the Student Body president's office in the Student Union. All those who do not sign-up today will not be allowed to participate in any part of the week's festivities, it was announced.

The following students will be on hand to assist with the registration:

8-9, Bruce Daly; 9-10, Chubby Kotta; 10-11, Polly Pagenhart; 11-12, Sue Brady; 12-1, Bill Johnston; 1-2, Sue Brady; 2-3 Sid Webb; and 3-4, Gay Van Perre.

Students are asked to be prepared to state whether or not they have a car and designate at that time if they wish to take part in the week's program. Sneak Week begins May 19 with a mixer in the Men's gym.

Juniors Urged To Register

It is necessary that all juniors who wish to participate in any activity during Senior Sneak Week register today, tomorrow, or Thursday in the Student Union.

Registration will be held from 9 until 3. The following students will be in charge of the files at that time.

Tuesday: 9, Christine Mansfield, Jeanne Marie Marblestone; 10, Mert Crockett, Mildred Field; 11, Jeanne Marblestone, Mildred Field; 12, Dave Atkinson, Betty Jarvis; 1, Jean Tarbox, Lorraine Tarbox; 2, Margie McDonald, Winona Schaefer.

Wednesday: 9, Wilbur Scott; 10, Mary Falcone; 12, Jeanne Marie Marblestone; Mildred Field; 1, Margie McDonald, Winona Schaefer; 2, Mary Falcone, Lois Silver.

Thursday: 9, Christine Mansfield Ruth Wool; 10, Jerry Fear, Jeanne Marie Marblestone; 11, Christine Mansfield, Betty Wool; 12, Margie McDonald, Betty Jarvis; 1, Mert Crockett, Dave Atkinson; 2, Mary Falcone, Anne McLaughlin.

Bob Serr and Anne McLaughlin have been chosen co-chairmen for the Junior-Senior Mixer to be held in the Men's gym May 19.

Campus Organizations Plan For Entertainment At Annual Alumni Homecoming May 31

Campus participation in the annual alumni homecoming May 31 will be generous despite the fact that it is a holiday week-end, chairmen revealed yesterday.

Several organizations have scheduled social functions in honor of returning alumni members, many students will help with arrangements and program, and a number of faculty members are on the planning committee.

Fraternities and some sororities will hold open house during the afternoon, so that alumni may get an idea of developments in housing since their student days.

Among the organizations which have scheduled social events for alumni are Tau Delta Phi, with a 7:30 breakfast in the tower, and Delta Phi Upsilon, with a breakfast at 9 o'clock at Tiny's.

Blue A Nice Spring Color, But—

San Jose State college students are likely to get more mail tomorrow than any day during the spring quarter.

Little azure hued pieces of cardboard will make their way through the U.S. mail as they do each quarter. They are designed to warn students that their "book larnin" is just a little under par and a few more hours in the library or at their desk might help.

So, if "The Blue One" comes your way, grin grimly, and forge forward to greater grades.

CANDIDATES FOR STUDENT COUNCIL SIGN UP IN PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

Nominees for student council positions are asked to sign up in the student president's office before the general assembly meeting tomorrow in the quad, announces Bob Payne, student body president.

The meeting tomorrow will be the second student body assembly in nine years. Periods will be shortened so that classes will be dismissed at 11:12.

Yell leader tryouts will also be held Wednesday. "All students who would like to tryout are requested to meet at 4 o'clock today in the Morris Dailey auditorium," states Head Yell Leader Tom Taylor.

Eligibility for student council positions is restricted to students with a "clear" scholastic record. Seven students are elected to the council which in turn names the student body secretary.

STUDENT OFFICERS

Student body president and vice-president are elected by the entire student body from the list of persons already named on the council.

Student council elections will be held Wednesday, May 14, in the special booths in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium. Primary student body president and vice-president election will be held Friday, May 18, and a final, or runoff, election will be Monday, May 19.

The council is the student governing body and decides issues of major and minor importance. It passes on student expenditures and comments on various committee reports.

QUAD PLATFORM

A platform will be constructed in the quad for tomorrow's meeting at which time students will be given an opportunity for discussion. A special public address system will be set up.

Class officers and chairmen of the Social Affairs and Rally committees will be introduced. Nominations for student council posts and offices will be made during the last 15 minutes of the assembly.

The band will be present and will play the college fight songs.

SCHEDULE

The assembly schedule will go into effect as follows:

First period—8:10 to 8:48.
Second period—8:58 to 9:36.
Third period—9:46 to 10:24.
Fourth period—10:45 to 11:12.
Fifth period—11:20 to 12:00 (student body assembly).

Seven Students Secure Air Rides

Seven students won free airplane rides when they found the tickets dropped from airplanes during the Spardi Gras festivities. Those who won rides are: Jean Ellsworth, Jean Follette, Helen Virginia Cronk, Dave Atkinson, Calvin Morris, Bob Blackman and Sanford Grover.

The winners are requested to inquire about their airplane ride in F. F. Petersen's office and the San Jose airport so that they may arrange a time and a date with a member of Alpha Eta Rho, international aviation fraternity. Thirty-two others also won rides, and may file their claims by seeing Petersen.

Students have until May 30 to obtain their rides.

KSJS Sponsors Poetry Reading Contest Tomorrow

Something new in contests on Washington Square will begin tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, when for the first time in the history of the college, a Poetry Reading contest will be held to test the interpretive ability of students, according to Harriet Sandifer, chairman of the contest committee.

KSJS, Radio Speaking society, is sponsoring the contest for which preliminary tryouts will be held in room 53 tomorrow afternoon. Winners of this division of the contest will take part in the final competition which is set for the following Wednesday, May 14.

Competition is open to any student who is not a member of the radio organization, and three prizes will be awarded. First prize will be a book of poetry, announces Miss Sandifer.

A list of 50 poems which may be selected for reading is posted on the bulletin board outside Ray Irwin's office, room 165B. Also posted is a list of poems which are not to be read.

Judges have been selected from the Speech faculty. They are Miss Marie Carr, Ted Hatlen, and Irwin, who is also adviser for the Radio Speaking society.

SIX MEN DISPLAY WORK IN ART WING

A six-man show by conservative Southern California artists starts a two week run in the Art department hallway gallery this week.

Southland artists exhibiting their works are: Paul Lantz, Ralph Holmes, Richard Taggart, Clyde Scott, George Barker, and Emil J. Kosa Jr.

A Safer And Saner 'Bloody Week'

May 19 will probably be chalked up as a cardinal day in the history of this school, to be remembered with fear and trembling, for on May 19, 1941, San Jose State college's "Bloody Week" begins. The combined forces of the junior and senior classes meet for once on a common battlefield and from all indications the age-old antagonism of the two upper classes, nurtured by years of tradition, will explode in the loudest roar yet to echo across this campus.

Each year the reverberations grow louder—and safer. It has been several years since anyone was thrown through "Uncle Jimmy" DeVoss' roof, and kidnap casualties are on the wane. The terror of graduating seniors on the loose, safe in the knowledge that the college was proud of them and would give them a sheepskin regardless of the lives lost, is in part replaced by a tamer, and a saner, form of letting off steam.

Already the columns adjacent to this have contained letters calculated to stir upper-class hate and foster undying loyalty, brother to brother. The odd stroke of fate in this particular scene of college life is the enthusiasm with which students who have never attended a class meeting greet the advent of this week.

Actually the entire thing takes on more and more the air of a well-handled stage production. There was the day when the long lines of marauding upperclassmen, marching through the shadows of night toward the suspected meeting place of the enemy, needed only a wooden-wheeled tumbrel to bring to mind Dickens' picture of the French revolution. The actual day of the senior picnic was a deep secret, known only to trusted members of the senior class committee and to a single writer on the Daily.

Now, in order to facilitate operations for the week, juniors are warned of marauders, upperclass presidents sit in on the same meetings, and juniors know well in advance the day for the Big Sneak.

It makes things move more smoothly, but it takes the punch out of it. —Graham.

Success Depends On Leaders

For the second time in nine years, the entire student body will gather en masse for an all-college assembly tomorrow morning and at this meeting nominations for student body officers for next year will be made.

By having such an assembly in the quad all students in college may attend and take part in one of the most important assemblies of the year—important because the college leaders will be nominated.

Success of college activities depends a great deal on the students who are at the head of the student body, for without efficient leaders these activities cannot be expected to succeed.

Now that there will be plenty of room for everyone at the assembly, there is no excuse for anyone not to attend. In fact it is everyone's duty and privilege to go whether he has a nomination to make or not. You may think that whether you are present or absent will make very little difference, but when a hundred people think the same way, it can change such an assembly from a success to a sad failure.

Looking at the situation from another angle shows that by failing to attend and thus not nominating a person who would be capable but who you feel would not stand a chance, you may be depriving the college of a good leader.

So now it's up to you. Why don't you do your part by at least attending the assembly, and if you have a nomination to make, make it. You'll be doing your part to make our assemblies successful and you may be nominating a winning candidate. —Irwin.

Speaking Of Jobs!

• By ED HAWORTH

The Appointment Office has just received a chart entitled DEFENSE JOB TRAINING from the United States Office of Education. This is a condensed guide to programs authorized by Congress to train persons for work in defense industries and in the armed services. It gives information relative to eligibility for training, length of courses, where they are given, where to apply, jobs for which trainee qualifies, etc. The chart may be seen in the Appointment office.

We are still interested in talking to men candidates for merchandising jobs in retail stores and also those who would like to investigate opportunities in the insurance field. This year's graduates are preferred, but other students are welcome to come to the office for further information.

The Alhambra City School System has notified us of its teachers' examination which is to be given on June 21. Teaching candidates who are interested in Southern California positions are invited to look through the announcement. Positions are open in kindergarten, third grade and seventh grade of the elementary schools. Several high school openings are to be filled, including shop, boys' physical education, girls' physical education, and music.

Watch the Appointment office bulletin board for similar announcements relative to vacancies in teaching and other fields.

Diet Ditties

How often have you noticed students listless and dull in their classes, not all the time, perhaps, but just once in a while? This very often is due to a faulty diet. Perhaps Peggy decided she needed a new dress for Junior Prom or an unusual costume for Spardi Gras and so she just skipped breakfast that morning. We are just like any other machine; we need fuel.

Perhaps the most important meal of the day is breakfast. Why? Just think—thirteen hours, at least, between dinner and breakfast and then if you don't get up for breakfast, eighteen hours between dinner and the next meal! Ponder on that a while. Many of us baby ourselves by sleeping more than we need much of the time.

You must have good health for good scholarship, no matter how much you burn the mid-night oil. Machines must have fuel!

By Anna E. Palmer, College Cafeteria.

Thrust and Parry

CONTRIBUTOR'S COLUMN

Thrust and Parry:

When I read Atkinson's article to Mr. Roosevelt yesterday, I said to myself, "The author of this must be a coward, a cad, and a copperhead." I let my emotions run away with my reason because when I got to the end and saw who had written the article I remembered that he is not any of these.

In our freshman year we were together in one class; often I heard him argue for a bigger armament program. At that time things were different, people talked of peace; they talked of disarmament. Today these same "friends of democracy" believe we should fight for a cause as hazy as that presented for the last war: "War to make the world safe for democracy."

I believe Dave feels the same way about America as he did then—100 per cent for her. I am beginning to see that we are being lead to a war we don't want—a war which is not for the good of American Democracy but for its harm. If to be for America first is to be a Copperhead, then I too am one.

Many of my friends whom I talk to are against going to this war (we'd fight for America, and how!). Perhaps we have been quiet too long. I, too, would like to ask: "Mr. President, why will you offer your neighbors, your friends, as a burnt offering for the sins of another people?"

—Frank Davison.

I am writing in regard to the article written by George Coles. He is quite right in his statement that the Social Affairs committee does a lot of hard work. Making arrangements for a place to hold a dance, auditioning several bands, decorations, and setting up the platforms are a few of the many tasks the Social Affairs committee performs.

To believe everyone knows the hard work that is done and it seems to me that is why such a small group of persons work on it every quarter. But the real problem is not the amount of work done, but how to get a Social Affairs chairman to give the best results. Speaking from the standpoint of actual experience, having been Social Affairs chairman, I believe that the present method is most effective. Each quarter the student council selects an individual with the recommendation of the outgoing chairman from the committee itself. The selection is based on willingness to cooperate, ability of leadership and experience, in that line of work. One may argue that the committee head is chosen from a select group, but that is not true because anyone who is interested is more than welcome to work on the committee.

By this method actual performance is the yard stick which is the measure for the student council to go by. To have an elected Social Affairs chairman would probably be to put a person in office with no experience and little knowledge of what to do and how to do it. Therefore I believe that the present system is the most practical. —Harrett Mannina.

Editor of the Spartan Daily:

It is high time the contributors to the Spartan Daily exercised some restraint in their choice of language. Yesterday an article appeared in this column that was a disgrace to the paper and to the college. The writer actually accused the President of the United States of being a traitor to his country. He wrote "Like Benedict Arnold the org, you sold your country to England"! What monstrous statement for any American college student to make. If this young man were a German student and made such a statement about the German Fuhrer, he would be quickly escorted to the nearest concentration camp and would be lucky to get away with his life. Such writing as this ought not to be tolerated in our college paper. This kind of writing is exactly what Hitler likes to see, because it tries to stir up disloyalty against our leader, and against the policy of aiding England, to which this nation is now committed.

The President of this country has tremendous burdens to bear. He is a great patriot, and a man of vision. He is doing his utmost to rearm the nation and to wake up the people to the German peril. We should all get behind him and support him in these crucial and historic times. England is our first line of defense against the German barbarism, and as long as England stands and the British navy is afloat the Nazi terror will never be able to invade the shores of the Western Hemisphere.

—Arthur Kelley.

Mr. Lacy says that we do not all believe that only the mature and wise can be helpful in social analysis and interpretation. Does Mr. Lacy think he is well qualified to be helpful? It think it is perfectly safe to say that we all believe that Mr. Broyles is much more qualified to be helpful than Mr. Lacy.

We are not able to step into a job in a business or profession and do a good job without being oriented to it. So it is with us in school and those who have been out of school only a couple of years. We are not oriented to the ways of the world and making a living and are therefore incapable of a thoroughly wise social analysis and interpretation.

Our only aim seems to be to make some money. We are not fully aware, of the intricacies of life and human behavior to be able to tell the older, more mature and more experienced about the ills of the world as if they were not well aware of them.

The older we become the more we realize from our past mistakes. This I have found to be true in my short life and will continue to be true on through the rest of life, or so I have been told by my predecessors, whom I have reason to believe.

Surely we have our social analysis and interpretation, and are entitled to them as citizens of this country, but are they the best? Mr. Lacy has the right to express his opinion and beliefs, but a newspaperman's job is to give accurate and substantiated statements.

G. KONOSHIMA, LATKA IN PRO BOUTS TONIGHT

Two San Jose State college boxers, now in the professional ranks, take on opponents tonight at the San Jose Civic auditorium.

They are Georgie Latka, one of the top contenders for the world's lightweight championship, and Georgie Konoshima, who makes his pro debut.

Latka meets the challenge of Zeke Castro, a fast stepping 135-pounder from Los Angeles in ten rounds. Castro's past performances indicate that Latka is in for a tough evening.

Castro is the same fighter who recently went to a draw with Lew Jenkins, the champion as the New York Athletic bosses see it. Castro came up off the floor twice after absorbing some of Jenkins' best Sunday shots and went on to hold the champ even.

Latka also has met a champion and gone to a draw, against Sammy Angott, the NBA titleholder. He has a June date with Angott for the title in an eastern battle this summer. In their last meeting, Angott out-weighted Latka in a non-title battle. With Angott forced to come down about six pounds to 135, Latka figures to have a better chance against a man more his own weight.

As for Konoshima, he tangles with Little Maxie Baer of Modesto in a preliminary four-rounder. Georgie, one of the hardest-hitting college bantamweights in the country, has already made quite a hit with the gymnasium railbirds.

Civitan Boxers Perform Again Tomorrow Night

Spartan boxers, coaching Civitan Boys clubs, will present their weekly boxing tournament between the youngsters of 10-15 tomorrow night in Spartan pavilion. Aimed at reducing juvenile delinquency, the clubs are organized on a neighborhood basis and draw their membership from the underprivileged classes.

Last week's bouts found 38 competitors with most of the bouts ending in draws. The boys compete for honor points and are eventually awarded with Civitan sweater emblems.

A city-wide tournament between the 10 clubs and approximately 200 boys is planned tentatively for May 16. No admission is charged and the public is invited.

Frosh Track Team Ends Season Friday

The Spartan freshman track team, defeated only once this year will close the 1941 season Friday when it contacts the Hayward High unlimiteds.

Last Saturday a trio of yearlings journeyed up to Berkeley to compete in the Junior PAA's. They were Bud Veregge, who ran a good hurdle race until stumbling; big Jim Wilson, who threw the discus a distance of 138 feet, and Dick Knox, who showed improvement in the mile.

The Spartlets have won meets from San Jose High and Commerce of San Francisco. They lost to a picked team of Santa Clara Valley Athletic League all-stars in a close engagement.

State May Lose Hearn And Wilson For 1941 Season

All was quiet on the football front last night as the Spartan gridders rolled through their third straight night practice session of the current spring training grind. Some 45 Spartans worked out under the direction of head Coach Ben Winkelman and advisory mentor Glenn Seoby Warner. Today, the Spartans will resume practice in the daytime when they hold their workout at 4 o'clock out at the stadium.

Although nothing definite was learned as yet, it was disclosed that both George Hearn and Jim Wilson were closer to being army bound than it was thought. Both are supposed to have passed the air corps examination. State lost quarterback George Wagner who also joined up with that division.

The Spartan grid machine has completed 15 of its 30 allotted spring practice days. San Jose is not held to any special time to practice in during the spring, but Coach Ben Winkelman has decided to abide by coast conference rules and practice for 30 days.

Highlight of the spring grind will be the regulation game played on the last day of practice. According to Winkelman, present plans call for one unit of draftees to clash with a unit of youngsters.

San Jose will open its gridiron schedule against the Texas A. & I. Other high spots on State's schedule include games with the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, University of Hawaii, the University of San Francisco eleven and traditional rivals, Fresno and College of Pacific.

There is a strong possibility that there might be another game added on to the present schedule. Nothing definite has been set as yet, but Coach Winkelman is dickering for a name opponent.

Spartans Prepare For CCAA

San Jose State college will be out to defend three championships and will be entered in a fourth event when the California Collegiate Athletic association sports carnival is held in Santa Barbara Friday and Saturday.

Last year Coach Charley Walker's varsity and freshman swimming squads overpowered opponents to win the crown, and will attempt to give a repeat performance this week-end. Coach Erwin Blesh's doubles team took a championship in 1940, and the Spartan golfers took team honors.

Coach Glenn (Tiny) Hartranft will release his track team entry list today for the CCAA meet.

Golf

CCAA competition in Santa Barbara Friday and Saturday is the last and final competition scheduled for Sparta's varsity golfing team.

Following a win over Salinas Junior college on Friday, the golfers were inactive as a team for the weekend and will remain out of action until the CCAA.

However, as individuals the Spartans kept in trim by competing in various tournaments. Captain Warner Keeley and Dale Wren missing from the Salinas J. C. match were in Fresno for the State Open tournament.

GOOD GOLF

Keeley shot fairly good golf, in the seventies, but his efforts weren't enough to get him in the winner's class.

At the San Jose Country club on Sunday, Jack Bariteau who led San Jose to the Salinas win, was eliminated from the country club championship tournament by Ernie Pieper Jr., who seems destined to win the title.

Bill Parton, one of last year's best Spartan golfers, is still very much in the tournament and a threat to Pieper.

Coach Walt McPherson will take four men south for the CCAA. He will pick his four men from the list of Captain Keeley, Bariteau, Herb Showers, Bob Burchfiel, and Dale Wren.

CONSISTENT

Keeley and Bariteau, most consistent men for Sparta all season, are sure of a berth on the CCAA team. Showers and Burchfiel have the inside track for the other posts so far, but first they must show their superiority over Wren, a senior.

Winners in six out of eight matches this season, San Jose will be favored to win the CCAA title from Fresno, San Diego and Santa Barbara.

FROSH WRESTLERS ELECT G. MANGUS

Glen Mangus, outstanding freshman 155-pound wrestler from Wyoming, was elected captain of the first year team at the conclusion of the season recently. Mangus is considered by Coach Sam Della Maggiore as one of the outstanding prospects developed on the team this year.

The freshman election is always held at the conclusion of the season after the members get acquainted. The varsity election for captain next year will be held at the annual banquet this month.

Riding club members do not forget to come to the Horse Show tryouts today at 4:30. Transportation leaves gym at 4. Pictures for La Torre will be taken at 4:30. Paul Beckwith, Pres.

Swimming

Winner last year of all nine events and favored to capture the major honors this year, Coach Charley Walker will take ten members of his 1941 swimming team to Santa Barbara Friday for the CCAA aquatic championships.

TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

In last year's meet in Fresno the Spartans amassed a total of 95 points in capturing the team championship, while their nearest opponent, Santa Barbara, was collecting 21 points. Fresno State was third with 19 points with San Diego State failing to enter a team. The Walkermen took both relay events and firsts and second in all events.

Dean "Diz" Foster, in the breast stroke, are the only defending champions this year. Joe Weitzenberg, sprinter, and Jack Porter, in the backstroke, who took seconds last year, will be out to take their last year's teammates' championships.

STRONG IN RELAYS

Other entries for the Spartans will find Don Thomsen and Bill Johnson in the sprints, Marty Taylor in the backstroke, Roger Frelief in the breaststroke, and Martin Wempe and Eagen Hoffman in the distance events.

With two relay teams that have set new school records this year the Walkermen should have little trouble in taking both the medley and freestyle relays, states Walker. Foster, Taylor and Johnson make up the medley team, while Thomsen, Weitzenberg, Johnson and probably Taylor will make up the 400-yard freestyle team.

San Jose State should have little trouble in winning their second CCAA swimming championship, states Walker.

SGO's Win From DTO's Take Lead

Sigma Gamma Omega five took the lead in the interfraternity basketball tournament yesterday when they outplayed the strong Delta Theta Omega team to win 50-31.

Dave Leonard led the scoring with 17 points. Gareth Adams was high man for the losers, caging 13 points.

In the second game of the day the Delta Sigma Gamma's broke into the win column when they handed the Gamma Phi Sigma five a 36-7 defeat. Bob Gager was high man with 17 points.

As a result of their win the APO's, DSG's are tied for the third position with 1 win and 3 defeats.

NOTICE

All Track men and the remaining baseball men who have not had their pictures taken for the year book PLEASE report to the Science basement tomorrow between the hours of 3 and 5. This will be the last opportunity for these pictures.

Bill Wasson.

Tennis

Coach Blesh's junior varsity tennis team will make its second start today when it journeys to Salinas to play the strong Salinas Junior college netmen.

In their only previous match, the junior netmen were victorious over Armstrong Junior college 5-2 on the local court.

Dick Uhrhammer will be in the number one spot, followed by Ernie Rideout, Kieth Wilson, Byron Kalin, Jack Kemper, and Earl Paulus in that order.

C.C.A.A. CHAMPIONSHIPS

This week-end Coach Blesh will enter four men in the California Collegiate Athletic Association championships. Ronald Edwards will enter the singles along with Nat Morton. George Quetin and Vic Morton will team together in the doubles matches.

San Jose again lost to the powerful Fresno State squad over the week-end on the local courts by a 7-2 score. Edwards was again the only Spartan to come through in the singles, defeating Dean St. John 7-5 and 6-4.

ANDREWS, EDWARDS WIN

Ted Andrews teamed with Edwards in the first doubles to down Hammond and Bill Peterson in two straight sets 7-5, 7-5. Morton and George Quetin lost heart breakers in the singles matches being nosed out in the final two sets after capturing the first set.

Fresno results:

Edwards (S) d. St. John (F). 7-5, 6-4.
Peterson (F) d. N. Morton (S). 6-2, 8-6, 6-4.
McCarthy (F) d. LaFrank (S). 6-0, 6-0.

'HOLIDAY' PRODUCTION SETS OFFER CONTRAST TO THOSE IN 'HAMLET'

San Jose Players' production of "Holiday" will have only two settings, according to Hugh Gillis, Speech department head, and both of them will be modern. This will be in direct contrast to the offering of "Hamlet" that closed after a record-breaking run.

The first scene in "Holiday" is laid in the drawing room of the Long Island home, and the second takes place in the play room of the same house. "Holiday" was produced on the screen with Cary Grant and Katharine Hepburn in the leading roles. For the Players production, Elena Lindeman and Clarence Cassell won the leads in recent tryouts conducted in the Little Theater.

James Clancy will direct the enterprise, and Wendell Johnson will design the sets. Johnson's settings for "Hamlet" won praise for him by the critics. Peter Mingrone will construct the sets. Ruth Froehlich will be in charge of makeup, and Corinne Andrews of advertising. Lloyd Lines will take charge of the house, and Bernice Lambert of the props.

Students wishing to see the last offering of the quarter may secure tickets May 14. Students will be charged 25 cents and outsiders admitted for 50 cents.

Newman Club Holds Semi-Formal Dance Saturday

Newman Club's annual spring semi-formal dance will be held this Saturday, according to Gene Sunia.

The theme is "Moonlight Sonata." Carrying out this theme the decorating committee headed by Sunia will transform the scene of the dance into a garden. The affair will be in Newman club hall on Fifth street.

The veranda is being equipped with garden furniture and bids will be held at the door the night of the dance according to Sunia.

Bids sell for $1.25 including tax.

Ushers Wanted For Educator's Meet

Students of San Jose State college, San Francisco State college and University of California are being offered the opportunity to act as ushers at the Association of Childhood Educators convention meeting in Oakland, July 7 through 12.

Miss Mabel Crumby of the Education department stated that there were over 3000 educators expected at the convention, and that any one attending would receive a wealth of information.

Students who would like to act as ushers at the convention should see Miss Schweizer in the Education office, room 161 as soon as possible.

Tryouts For Orchestras Set For May 15

Tryouts for Orchestras, honorary dance group, will be held May 15, according to Miss Marjorie Lucas, women's physical education instructor.

Applications for the tryouts may be obtained from members or from Miss Lucas. They must be filed by tomorrow and signed by Orchestras member.

If the tryouts are successful, the women will be asked to do their dances for the final tryouts, May 29.

STUDENT CENTER PLANS DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

The Student Center committee announces a student dinner for tomorrow night at the Student Center. All students and faculty members are invited to attend, says Betty Fancher, chairman.

The dinner will be 50 cents a plate, and proceeds will be used to equip the Student Center and the new workshop in the basement, which needs painting and partitioning, and which will require new furniture.

An evening of folk-dancing and entertainment will follow the dinner and a short program, Miss Fancher says.

"We promise all you can eat," Miss Fancher says. "And the evening of fun will be more than you can get at any local entertainment house—and the money goes to pay for your Student Center!"

Spartan Alumni Postpone Supper Until Tuesday

Spartan alumni living in Santa Clara county have postponed a potluck supper from tonight to next Tuesday, May 13, announces Chairman Carl W. Palmer, '35.

The potluck will be held at 6 o'clock in Alum Rock park. President of the chapter, Miss Evelyn Cavala, will conduct a short business session and present an entertainment program.

New officers for the 1941-42 year will be elected after the outdoor meal.

Any former students of San Jose State college may attend the potluck supper and bring guests. Telephone reservations should be made with Palmer at Col. 5645-W.

TRYOUTS FOR HORSE SHOW GIVEN TODAY

Replacing the annual San Jose State Horse show this year will be the showing at San Mateo on Saturday evening, May 17, at the Gymkhana club, according to Paula Beckwith, president of the college Riding club.

Tryouts for the Horse Show will be today at 4:30 at the Sunset Riding Academy regardless of the weather, Miss Beckwith declared. All women are eligible to tryout but should sign up on the bulletin board in the Women's gym before hand.

The two divisions, beginning and intermediate are open to everyone interested in participating. The college Riding club will be well represented because members will not hold their own showing this year, Miss Amaral, club adviser stated.

Following the show at San Mateo, riders and their escorts will be invited to the clubhouse to dance.

Members of the Riding club are urged by Miss Beckwith to tryout this afternoon as pictures of the group will be taken for La Torre immediately upon their arrival at the Academy. Transportation will be provided with cars leaving the Women's gym at 4 o'clock.

NEWS BRIEFS

Police School Plans Pistol Shoot May 15

Over 40 entries are expected to be filed for competition in the third annual Police school pistol shoot, according to Frank Kallam. The shoot will be conducted May 15 at the San Jose Police range on Fourth street with matches in all divisions arranged for.

A permanent trophy will be awarded to the student making the highest aggregate score of class "A" shoot, class "B" and left and right hand matches. Class "A," "B," and Rapid Fire trophies are perpetual and will have the winners names and the date engraved on them.

Medal winners may shoot in all events but they are not eligible for more than one medal. Highest class medals will be awarded. However, winners must shoot in stated matches to be eligible for the aggregate trophy.

Chemistry Trip

Classes in Chemical Technology will journey to San Francisco Friday to visit the Gildden Company Paint plant and to Berkeley to inspect the plant of the California Ink Company where various pigments for paint are made.

Dr. J. Wilfred Richardson and Dr. Elton Stinson of the Chemistry department will direct the field trip, planned for the purpose of studying solvents, lacquers and paints at first hand.

X-Ray Picture Shown Tomorrow

In connection with its varied health program the San Jose Health department will present to the general public a four-reel motion picture, "Exploring with X-Rays," tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Science building, room S112.

This 40 minute film has been loaned to the school by the General Electric corporation.

The picture tells the life story of X-rays from their discovery late in the nineteenth century until their wide use at present. Used at first only for limited medical cases now they are employed in medicine, in dentistry, in veterinary medicine, in the food industries, for inspection of heavy metals, in the research laboratory—invisible rays performing a thousand tasks undreamed of a generation ago.

According to the Health office there will be no admission charged for the entertainment.

DEBATERS HOLD INTERSQUAD MEET TOMORROW AT 4

Spartan Debate team will hold an intersquad discussion tomorrow at 4 o'clock in room 117 according to Miss Lucie Lawson, Speech instructor.

Conducted in symposium form the discussion will center about the question: "Should civil liberties be curbed in war time?"

The symposium will be made up of six speakers each of whom will be allowed five minutes to present the constructive argument.

Participants in tomorrow's discussion are: Allan Isaksen, Victor Gorin, Carson Ronas, Evelyn Bravo, Richard Fowler, and Kenneth Fisher.

NOTICE

Lost: Brown leather binder with name on it. All my work is in it. Please return it immediately to the Lost and Found. Marian Rye.

Beta Chi Sigma

Featuring "Blue Moonlight" as their theme, Beta Chi Sigma, social fraternity, will present their annual semi-formal for which bids are now on sale for $1.25 from any member of the society or at the Controller's office.

The dance will be at the Devonshire Country club on Saturday evening, May 24, with dancing from 9 to 1 to the melodies of Gene Goudron and his orchestra, according to Curt Beacock, chairman.

Patrons are to be announced later.

Skating Club Plans Spring Carnival

Sponsored by the Women's Ice Skating club and under the direction of Oren Marcus, world famous skater, a "Spring Skating Carnival" will be given June 3, according to Jerry Averitt, president of the group.

All women interested in skating in the chorus and in routine work should attempt to come every Wednesday for practice at 4 o'clock. Rehearsal period will be until 5:30, and skaters may stay on until 7:30, the time when the regular skating club meets.

All college men are still invited to skate with the club each Wednesday from 5:30 to 7:30 during the non-rehearsal period. Admission is 30 cents with student body card, and busses leave from Fifth and Santa Clara streets at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Gordon is adviser to the club.

Freshman Picnic

Plans for a freshman picnic to be held at Sea Cliff beach on Sunday, May 18 were completed at the Freshman council meeting held Monday evening.

Tickets for the affair will include both food and transportation and will be on sale today noon in the quad for 75 cents.

The picnic will begin at 10 with swimming, games, and contests offered for entertainment. Prizes will be awarded to contest winners. Food will be served at 12:30.

THREE PART TIME JOBS OPEN TO MEN STUDENTS

Three jobs are now open for men students:

An interior decorator wants a man to take orders and do delivery work. It is preferable that he be free a half day.

Another man is wanted to work during the summer to conduct camp activities for boys from 6 to 10 years of age.

The third man is wanted to do general office work four hours a day for five days a week. There will be more work during the summer months.

Those interested should contact Miss Doris Barbarez in the Appointment office.

Junior Orchestras Tryouts To Be Held In Women's Gym

Tryouts for Junior Orchestras will be held Thursday, May 15, in the Dance Studio in the Women's gym, announces Miss Marjorie Lucas, dance instructor and adviser to the group.

All women interested in dance may attend and will be given two different ways to try out. Senior Orchestras is a women's honorary dance society.
